WHY THIS INFORMATION IS IMPORTANT

At Ajax Family Chiropractic, we focus on creating healthy families. Our goal is to understand the reason(s) that brought your child to our office and to offer your family an opportunity to improve your overall health through chiropractic care (a wellness lifestyle). Stress is a major cause of poor health. Stress can overwhelm the body and can alter one's ability to adapt to the environment. Stress on the body may occur suddenly or gradually, it may be harsh or subtle --- the effects are cumulative. Physical stress can come from physical trauma, injuries, or from regular activities. Chemical stress comes from the environment, from what one eats, and even from medications. Emotional stress is life in general, family, friends and school on an everyday basis. By answering the following questions, you give us a profile of the stress(es) your child has faced in his/her lifetime. Understanding the challenges helps us identify what is limiting your child's ability to heal and the ability to express his/her true health potential. Let's figure it out and find solutions together.
